

“If you’re thinking of starting a local organization, New York City Skeptics is a fine example of how to do it right.”

– James Randi

About New York City Skeptics

NYC Skeptics is an all-volunteer, 501(c)3 educational organization that promotes critical thinking, skeptical inquiry, and science education. We serve as a resource to the media and the general public regarding pseudoscientific and paranormal claims, as well as sponsor numerous activities designed to promote reason and rationality:

- Our Public Lecture Series hosts speakers from the scientific and skeptical worlds including John Rennie, Carl Zimmer, James Randi, Matthew Chapman, Michael Shermer, and Richard Wiseman.
- We sponsor the New York City chapter of Drinking Skeptically, a monthly gathering that allows skeptics and like-minded individuals to discuss and share ideas in a casual, relaxed atmosphere.
- We co-sponsor the Northeast Conference on Science and Skepticism (NECSS), a skeptical and scientific conference, held annually in New York City (www.necssscon.org).
- We publish the Gotham Skeptic blog (www.gothamskeptic.org), produce the Rationally Speaking podcast (www.rationallyspeakingpodcast.org), and sponsor the NYC chapter of SkeptiCamp.
